Kalaipuli Sekaran to contest in election The elections of the Chennai-Kanjeevaram-Tiruvalluvar Distributors' Association will take place on November 15. Originally slated for October 11, it had to be postponed when one of the factions had sought a stay. The High Court has removed the stay and accepted the new date. The incumbents, Kalaipuli G. Sekaran and Babu Raj, are contesting for the post of president and secretary respectively.
